

NORTH POLE REINDEER'S BASEBALL

Once in the North Pole, a game was afoot The North Pole Reindeers were ready to shoot They were playing ball against the Toy Makers crew and the game promised to be a great to-do

Santa Claus was the captain of his team With Jolly as coach, they were quite the dream Jingle and Twinkle, executive elves so bright Their team was ready for a fierce fight

The Toy Makers, too, were no slackers With Sparkle, a strong player, they were quite the attackers The game started with Santa's team in the lead Thanks to his hitting and his team's good deed

The Toy Makers, though, soon came back strong and with great plays, they proved they belonged in the seventh inning, Santa hit a ball high That looked like it was destined to fly

Out of the park and win the game But Sparkle made an incredible claim He leapt high and caught the ball with ease The crowd gasped in amazement, a sight to please

The game was tied, and it went to extra innings Mrs. Claus appeared, carrying cookies and milk tinning's She cheered for her team, the Reindeers so bright the other fans joined in, it was quite a sight

The game went back and forth, it was quite intense But, in the end, Jingle hit a home run immense in the bottom of the eleventh, he secured the win And the North Pole Reindeers, with a grin

Celebrated their victory with Santa so grand and shook hands with the Toy Makers band Even Sparkle, who made that amazing catch Wished them luck for next year's match

And so, with another game in the books The Reindeers went back to their workshop Thinking about next year and the chance to defend Their title as the best team, until the very end!
